Our Faculty members have not only been our teachers but also friends and counselors as well.

They have taught us many things and ask in return only that we use them wisely as we venture out into the world.

They have tried to develop our own personal characteristics realizing that we are all individuals.

We leave Lincoln, with diplomas in hand, feeling that we are ready to face any responsibilities we may encounter in the future.

SENIOR CLASS

. . . We have met in the halls of a great school . . .

JAMES SLOAN
President

With the words of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, we take you into the lives of the students participating in the many activities.

You have already seen the members of the faculty for this semester and will meet the June 1957 graduating class, and their class officers who are pictured below, the athletes, including four state champions, the musicians, the dramatists, the student governing body, the staff members that the students and teachers depend on, and the students that are preparing for their intended future careers.

A pictorial tour will follow, illustrating a modern Lincoln High version of the Gettysburg Address.

LARRY CRANE
Vice President

BRENDA FOUST

SPORTS

SWIMMING

Coach Loren Graaff

The Abe tankers had one of their most successful seasons this year, posting a record of eight wins and two losses in dual meets while taking second and fifth in the city and state meets respectively. The mermen also splashed their way to several new school records. Bill Nessen won the city and state diving title. David Sever busted swimming records for Lincoln, along with Al Reynolds and Bill Nessen.

New Records

Dave Sever.
100 yd. backstroke—
Al Reynolds
120 yd. Individual medley—
Dave Sever
Diving—Bill Nessen—210.1.

WRESTLING

Coach Don Koroch

Lincoln's wrestling team had a very successful season this year. The grapplers piled up an impressive record of 12 wins and one loss. The loss was the first wrestling meet of the season which they lost to Tech 20 to 19. The wrestlers tied for the city championship and took a second in the district meet, sending four boys to the state meet in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Three of the boys were eliminated in the first round but Larry Hayes went all the way through and won the 138 pound championship. The other boys who went to state were Art Martinez, Jack Schamerhorn and John Brodene.

In the individual city championship match Lincoln took two championships: they were Dick Ortega at the 127 pound division and Larry Hayes at the 145 pound division.

BASKETBALL

Coach Mr. Talarico

The basketball season of 1956 and 57 had a very good improvement over that of last year's records and as far as its team play went. The boys greatly improved on team defense, and they showed well played and contested individual play and poise in the games. With this year's graduation, they will lose Jerry Brown, Larry Wright, Lon Piper, Doug Shaffer, and Bob Karnes. The boys coming up show a lot of spirit and determination. The graduation of Richard Barbour and Bill King and Larry Maxwell at the first of the season put Lincoln's hopes down a little but by shifting some of the boys down and around the varsity spots were capably filled.

Richard Barbour was Lincoln's high scorer this season with a total of 117 points up to his graduation in January. Bill King had a total of 111 and Larry Wright, 93. Lincoln's game averaged 44.3 to its opponents average of 47.3. Lincoln's total team scoring was 709 compared to their opponents score of 757.

The boys lost many games this season by only a few points and many of them were really heart-breakers. The Sophomore team did not have a very successful season; but, with a few new boys added this semester from Nathan Weeks, they should give a lot of help.

With a little more experience and determination the boys are hoping for a better record next year.

BASEBALL

Coach Wayne Heintz

The Lincoln High 1957 spring baseball team got off to a slow start this year because of poor weather conditions and they had little time to practice outside.

The team has nine returning lettermen and a lot of sophomores out to build up the team for the future. The returning lettermen are Terry Travis, Jerry Brown, Doug Shaffer, Dennis Guessford, David Sever, Bowen Campbell, Ed Hinkley, Bud Mason and Dick Selinger.

GOLF

Coach Don Ceynar

Lincoln High's golf team has shown steady improvement. This year's team has a junior nucleus which could be very tough their senior year.

Boys' Team

The boys' team has on its roster Cliff Rooney, Tom Mackey, Dick Warnes, Chuck Holten, Frank Aiello, Jo Mazza, Ron Ripley, Jim Lawrence, Joel Heifner. These boys are either juniors or sophomores.

Girls' Team

The girls' team has Shirley Miller, Rochelle Toner, Sue Baillie, Carol Erickson, Judy Mould, Norma Loffredo, Martha Henry, Sharon Bent, Sharon Weaver and Judy Shadley.

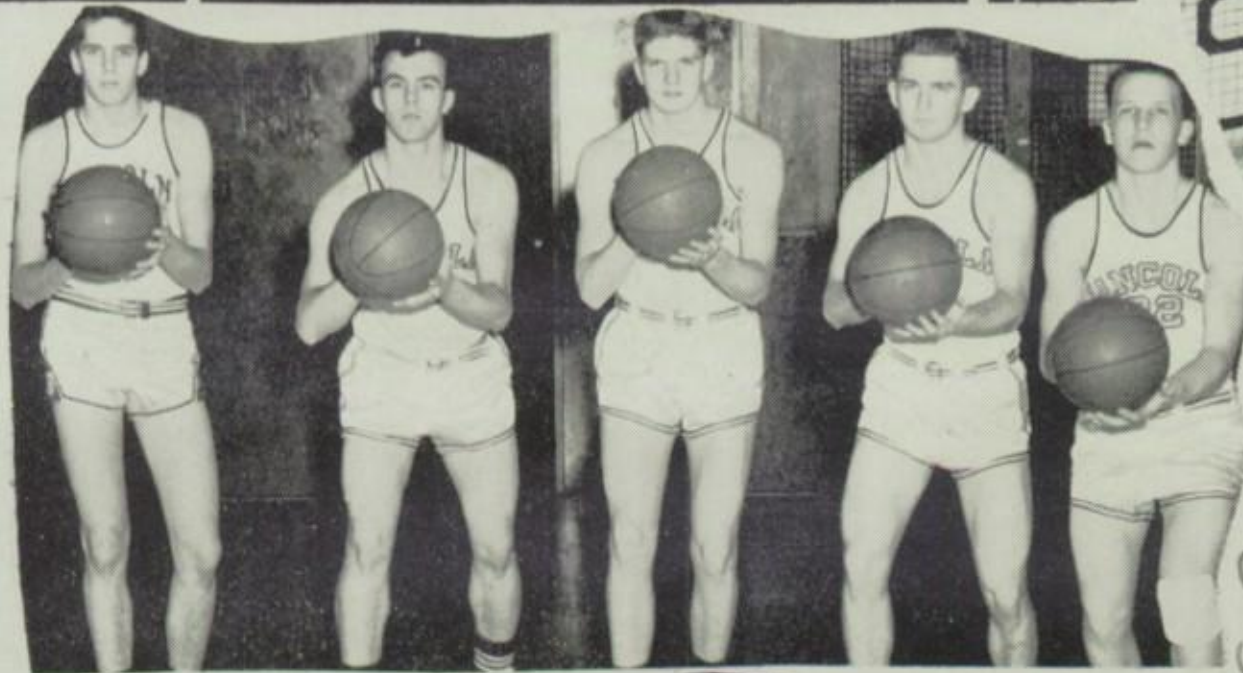

SPRING TRACK

Coach Glenn Rouse

This year's track squad started with 42 members, 22 of whom are sophomores. The squad has only 5 returning lettermen this spring. They are: Jim Watson, Larry Armel, Lonnie Piper, Dan Krueger, and Larry Crane. The squad lost the help of another letterman, John Watson, who suffered a leg injury at the first of the season.

Due to the late printing of this story and book the track and baseball teams have not participated in many events, but with the returning of lettermen on both of the teams we are expecting both teams to have a better record over that of last year's.

Like the track and baseball teams, the golf and tennis teams have not appeared in many meets yet, but we are expecting them to do their best also.

Cheerleaders and Majorettes

MR. HOFFMAN and MR. HEATH, Advisors

We thank the cheerleaders of Lincoln who help boost the school spirit sky high and obtain the greatest cheering section in the city.

Under the direction of Mr. Hoffman, the cheerleaders lead cheers for the football, basketball, and wrestling teams.

The pretty gals who always lead the band were the Lincoln Majorettes, who, during the halftimes at games, gave fine exhibitions of baton twirling.

Senior and Junior Chorus

MRS. MAPEL, Director

The Senior Chorus has had a busy year singing for Christmas and Easter services, the Spring Festival, and Baccalaureate. Lincoln can be justly proud of this fine musical group.

Junior Chorus is where the voices for Senior Chorus are developed for choral singing. This excellent group has made a fine record in its singing.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB: First Row: Terry Temby, Cathy Erickson, Rosemary McCullough, Irene Hassebrook, Mrs. Mapel, Janet Irwin, Sandra McNally, Caroline Hill, Cora Dancak. Spring Play

DOUBLE DOOR: Act I: Mike Kelly, Betty Beckman, Joanne O'Rourke, Lynn Gillam, Bob Jensen, Margo Davis.

"Double Door" was an intelligently written melodrama with a light convincing plot. It was presented on the Lincoln High stage on March 28th and 29th.

This was the most exciting play since "Dracula." You thought Dracula was hateful, but when Victoria Van Bret came on the stage you soon saw what meanness, cruelty and hatefulness really are.

Family pride, like anything else in this life, can be persued fanatically as a fetish and from there on it may turn into a mania if one is inclined to dwell inordinately on such a hobby. The disease is apt to break out in wild form in some old lady in any family but with Victoria Van Bret it pyramids into insanity.

DOUBLE DOOR: Act III: Mike Kelly, Judy Fryman, Lynn Gillam, Joanne O'Rourke, Sue Gaylord, Margo Davis, Dennis Kunkel, Betty Beckman, Bob Jensen, Chuck Queener.

Spring Play

DOUBLE DOOR: Act I: Sandy Ginder, Carl Stone, Janice Fillman, Catherine Caldwell.

Very cruelly and relentlessly, Victoria ruled her family. She hated Anne Darron who was a sweet young bride. She completely controlled her younger sister Caroline. Victoria had to console Rip because he was not yet under her complete control.

In a dark room that had not been changed since her father died, Victoria went through her cheerless routine with cruel regularity. She was more cruel than ever, just now, because Rip was marrying a young lady who was not of his social standing. Victoria senses a threat to the integrity of the Van Bret fortune. How Victoria tortures the bride and finally tries to murder her was the main plot of the story.

DOUBLE DOOR: Act II: Sandy Ginder, David Trissel, Carl Stone, Janice Fillman, Keith Adamson, Janice Scott, Dennis Kunkel, Suzanne Caskev, Catherine Caldwell.

. . . The school can never forget what we did here . . .

MISS HOLT and MRS. SHIFFER, Advisors

Library Staff is made up of girls who help with the general library housekeeping, shelve books, check books in and out, find magazines for students, and file cards. They work during study hall hours or before and after school, and hold meetings where books are reviewed by staff members.

Office Staff aids both faculty and student body by answering questions, answering the switchboard and telephones, running errands, bookkeeping, helping to locate lost articles, and various other duties. They also help to keep the school management efficient.

The Secretarial Staff is made up of girls who are selected according to their scholastic ability in the secretarial field. They are all in advanced typing and shorthand classes. This staff has various duties that include typing variable copies of work for the school and operating the mimeograph machine.

Nurses Staff consists of girls who perform various duties, for example, filing, tabulating weight, audiometer and T. B. reports, and dental findings. They also assist with weighing, giving of T. B. patches, taking temperatures, giving first aid, clean and make beds, and generally making themselves useful.

Spring Highlights

We, the seniors of the June 1957 graduating class of Lincoln High School, would like to bring back some of the highlights of our senior year.

New Student Council officers were installed in an assembly held on January 9. John Bartholomew was installed as President, Pat Griggs as Secretary, Lynn Gillam as Vice President, Patty Moon as Treasurer, and Jim Watson as Judicial Chairman. The Senior class was very proud of the fact that three of its members were chosen by the student body to be council officers.

The Regular Railsplitter staff was announced on January 28 by Mr. Sanders, the Journalism advisor. Sharon McCormick was chosen editor; Sandra Allen, Make-up; Robertta Pultz, Back Page Make-up Editor; Barbara Henry and Judy Zahn, Feature Editors; Norma Byg, Feature Columnist; Doug Shaffer, Sports Editor; Carlin Irish, Sports Columnist; Jim Ryals, Advertising Manager; Bonnie Dobbins, Circulation; and Charlene Clark, Copy Reader. With this staff directing, the Journalism 2 Class published seven newspapers, the largest number ever to be published in one semester for the students of Lincoln High and the Southside Community.

Three new teachers were added to the Lincoln faculty this semester. They were Mrs. Caple, Mrs. Hoff, and Mr. Wilgenbusch. We now have a total of 61 teachers on the Lincoln High faculty.

Our Senior Railsplitter staff was also announced by Mr. Sanders on the 28th of January. Wayne Peercy served as the editor-in-chief. Judy Shaw was the make-up editor; Nancy Sullivan and Vicki Cataldo worked on organizations. Also on the 1957 Senior Rail staff were Carmella Crivaro, Judy Hunt and Patty Moon who wrote the sketches beside each senior's picture. Bill Nessen was the sports editor and Sharon Newell was in charge of circulation. Sue Nowels and Rosie Leo took charge of the glossies while Kay Zika, Patty Lamendola and Sharon Perkovich made up the picture pages. David Moffitt was the advertising manager and Betty Beckman wrote the Senior highlights. This staff was responsible for the 98-page book published by the Senior class. This class sold 900 Senior Rails which is the highest amount ever sold in Lincoln High.

Bill Nessen, a 12A, took the state diving title in the state swimming meet held on February 15 and 16. With this honor, Bill completed an undefeated season in that event. The Lincoln High tankers completed the season with a fifth place ranking in the state meet. The seniors would like to congratulate all of the boys who passed the preliminary tests and got into the final events of this state meet as it was considered the fastest high school swimming meet ever held in Iowa.

Leading the Senior class for the past semester was Jim Sloan. He was elected by the class to act as its president. His duties included presiding at all senior meetings, appointing all personnel of committees, carrying on the work of the class, calling senior meetings, and making a valedictory speech on class day in behalf of the class. Larry Crane was elected Vice President of the class. He presided over the senior meetings in the event of the absence of the president and presented the "Key to the World" on behalf of the class to the elected 12-B in the class day assembly. We selected Brenda Foust as secretary of the Senior class. She kept careful records of all class meetings and executive committee meetings, and wrote notes of appreciation to speakers furnished for commencement and baccalaureate services of the class. Nancy Sullivan was elected treasurer. She collected all fees and issued a receipt for all money received, paid all senior obligations, and made a report in duplicate of all transactions for the school auditor.

Larry Hayes won the state championship wrestling crown in the 138 pound division at Cedar Falls, February 23. Lincoln wrestlers came from behind to trip Tech 24-22 to gain a share of the city championship title, February 19, in the Abe's gym. This was the third time in four years Lincoln has had either the city wrestling championship title or a share of it.

Patty Moon and Larry Cook were chosen by the Journalism 2 Class to model the Younger ad that appears in this book. These two students were re-

Can you qualify?

A "careful driver" obeys all traffic signals!

If you use good judgment, common sense and courtesy when you are behind the wheel it should be easy for you to qualify as a State Farm "Careful Driver". Because State Farm aims to insure only those drivers who have fewer accidents and fewer claims, they are able to offer sound protection at reasonable rates. So, before you buy auto insurance, call your State Farm agent and find out how you may qualify for "Careful Driver" insurance.

It pays to know your STATE FARM Agent!

quired to plan a theme, make the photographic arrangements, and meet other requirements necessary to get the ad ready for the Rail. The theme they decided on was centered around a barbecue pit. Patty and Larry both decided to wear Bermuda shorts. Carlin Irish and Norman Timmons were runners-up in this voting so the class decided to have them pose for the Senior class inset picture to be used in the book.

Bonnie Winner, a 10A, was presented the Hallmark Art Award March 2. The Hallmark is one of the highest awards received. Bonnie was one of the five finalists from a field of 3,000 entries.

Carl Loffredo had a big day in March. He was awarded a four-week trip abroad this summer to Switzerland. The trip is the annual Civil Air Patrol Cadet exchange to promote good will and understanding between nations. Carl was chosen on the basis of his scholastic ability, knowledge of Civil Air Patrol history and various other abilities.

THE MOURNFUL, melancholy, wails seeping through the cracks at 544 36th St. (Maxheim Studio to you) is your old grief-

Lens Bender head and his little crimson orbbed gremlins sobbing out the anguish of parting's sweet sorrow from all you snootie cuties and gone guys a fixin' to scuttle your curriculum. So as you jubilate with all the well wishes and Maxheims wallet pics, don't forget to dig your old Uncle Max come middle aisle merger time. Our wedding Whammy will stake you out to so many drooly memories that it will make Swanee River seem like a fever dream.

And remember, the first papoose hits the jackpot for a free portrait if we can muscle in on the wedlock workout. The number is BL 5-1553 for real photographic Moxie.

This senior was also chosen to represent the Iowa Wing of the Civil Air Patrol at the meeting of the National Cadet Advisory Council in California.

The annual Fun Night was held March 15. It was planned and sponsored by the Lincoln High P.T.A. The new attraction this year was the Win-A-Panda booth. This booth took in the most money for the P.T.A. Profits from Fun Night this year amounted to $857.43.

"Double Door," a melodrama, was presented on the Lincoln High stage on March 28 and 29. Miss Riggs directed the spring play, which had two separate casts. The fifth hour dramatics class presented the play Thursday afternoon and the sixth hour class presented it Friday night. Sandy Ginder had the lead Thursday and Betty Beckman had the lead Friday night. Sharon Newell and Robertta Pultz had charge of the ushers.

"Monitor" is going places and doing things. This was the theme for the 12A Get-to-gether assembly held Thursday, April 4. Some of the guests "Mon-

These strange people entertained the senior high students and the parents of the senior class in an assembly in the auditorium. Some of the highlights of the assembly were Charleston dancers from the flapper era, sleepy time gals singing "Goodnight My Love," a Shakespeare play, a visit from a viper, a minstrel show, a skit about Easter, and future, past and present Elvis's. After school, a dance was held in the girls' gym. It was followed by a spaghetti supper in the cafeteria. Following the supper the 12A class went to Don Bell's Teen Hop at the Val-Air in their costumes. Don Bell awarded prizes to the students with the best costumes. Jerry (Little Richard) Brown and Dave (Sheena) Moffitt won with their costumes. All 12A's that attended received a record. champions in the jitterbug contest. The day ended with the seniors going downtown in their costumes for pizza. This was a perfect ending for a perfect day for the seniors.

A roaring fire destroyed the heating plant and shops building at Lincoln High early Wednesday morning, April 9. Flames shot 50 - 100 feet into the air through the roof of the heating plant building. Burning embers threatened a wide area in the vicinity. The night fireman at the school, James Riccio, discovered the fire. A piece of ceiling fell and hit Mr. Riccio on the head as he was working. He investigated and discovered the blaze starting on the floor above. Mr. Riccio, Mr. Don Koroch, the driver training instructor, and Mr. Fitzsimmons, the football coach drove out three school buses and the driver's training car from the basement garage before the flames reached them. The building is on the southwest corner of the Lincoln high grounds and faces Loomis Avenue. The roaring flames attracted spectators from a wide area on the south side. The red glare and flaming embers were visible from many parts of the city. Firemen smashed windows in an annex connecting the heating plant building with the main part of the school. No school was held Thursday, April 10. Classes were resumed Friday morning, April 11. Classes were held in the auditorium, library, and cafeteria for the time being. Many students lost their wood shop projects which has cost them lots of time, effort, and money. The estimated damage was $300,000. Plans to build the most complete shops building in Des Moines are underway. The new shops building will be ready next January.

"Mardi Gras" was the theme of the 12A informal dance held on Saturday, April 13 from 8:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. in the boys gym. Terry Travis was chairman of the informal dance committee. The 12A's and their guests danced to the music of the Collegiates, a nine-piece band. Decorations for the dance were made under the direction of Sally Haydon. They included a fountain with a crystal ball above it with fans and masks along the walls. Behind the band was a big mask. Little fans and masks were placed on the tables. The faculty members in charge were Miss Ahrens and Mr. Hem-enway.

Lincoln's music department had their Annual Spring Music Festival on May 1 and 2 in the school auditorium under the direction of Mrs. B. Pearl Mapel. The senior chorus sang excerpts from the "Desert Song." Several solos were sung, including one done by Pat Losh. Other acts were the boys quartette, the girls sextette sang "How Do I Love Thee," the junior chorus, glee clubs, and the band under the direction of Mr. Heath. There were also several instrumental solos.

"Spinsters Spree" was held May 4 in the boys gym. This was a novel idea planned by the Senior Student Council. It was the first dance at Lincoln in which the girls escorted the boys.

Lincoln played host to all the other high schools in the city, May 10, for the purpose of the Science Fair. All the Science departments participated.

Margaret Plemone, Phyllis Benton, and Brenda Foust were chosen princesses from Lincoln for the Drake Relays parade. The Relays were held April 26 and 27.

The senior class had its formal at the Val Air Ballroom on May 24. We all danced into the wee hours of the morning to the lovely music of Ralph Zarnow. There was gaiety, romance, and everyone had a wonderful time.

Our senior class banquet was held at Younkers on May 28. The lovely decorations were prepared by the banquet committee.

The baccalaureate and parent tea took place in the Lincoln High Auditorium, on June 2, at 3:00 p.m.

Class Day was held on June 4. After participating in a play and various talent acts, we received our class ribbons and roses.

As 12A's we finally reached our goal. Commencement was held June 6 at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium. Although we have some regrets in leaving Lincoln High, we know we will have many fine memories of our past six years, and we feel that we are ready to face any responsibilities we may encounter in the future.
